welcome to...

Universal Studios

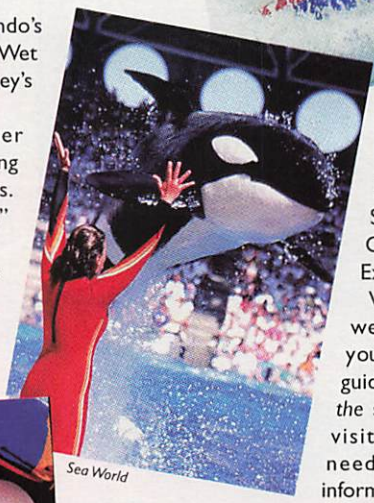
A visitor in Orlando is like a kid in a candy store. There's so much to choose from, it's hard to know where to begin. SEE Orlando is a great place to start.

Begin with the obvious — theme parks. Disney is working hard to create new worlds for you to explore in the MAGIC KINGDOM Park, EPCOT Center and Disney-MGM Studios. World-renowned Sea World allows you to observe and interact with all types of marinelife and has completed a major expansion. Orlando's newest theme park is Universal Studios Florida.

To cool off, visit one of Orlando's water-theme parks which include Wet 'n' Wild, Water Mania, and Disney's Typhoon Lagoon.

Nightlife. Orlando's dinner theatres and clubs include rousing entertainment in several themes. SEE our "Nighttime Attractions" section for details.

Shop till you drop. If you love bargain hunting, you'll be in heaven in Orlando, where factory outlets abound. If you have more discriminating tastes, Winter Park is a good bet, as is Mercado Mediterranean Shopping Village and Church St. Station Exchange.



Sea World

The Walt Disney Company

While you're here, we hope you'll use your "little yellow guide," SEE Orlando, as the source for all your visitor information needs — from information on the theme parks to dining and shopping to outdoor recreation to what to do when the sun comes down. And to help you have the most fun for the least amount of money, we've collected some great discounts for you in our coupon section in the center of the book. Get out your scissors, start clipping and happy vacationing!

Blizzard Beach

Walt Disney World's new thrills include The Twilight Zone Tower of Terror at Disney-MGM Studios, featuring a ride (and a plunge!) on an elevator of a deserted old hotel that takes guests to The Twilight Zone. New in Tomorrowland in Magic Kingdom, the ExtraTERRORestrial Alien Encounter sends a horrific alien into a darkened theater filled with guests. Disney's water park offering, Blizzard Beach, features a "defrosted" Mount Gushmore where guests plunge down a 120-foot slide. At Epcot, DiveQuest guests dive in a six-million gallon aquarium with more than 3,000 reef inhabitants, including angelfish and trigger fish, sea turtles and sharks. Call 824-4321 for more.

Epcot's DiveQuest

Laser Action Kissimmee at 4555 W. Hwy. 192, across from Jungleland, is a high-tech laser-pursuit shooting game that's played on a maze-like playing field with smoke machines, spaceships, programmable lights and lots of exciting surprises for players. Call 397-1159.

"Squires Inn," a Sleuth Mystery Dinner Show, is an engrossing off-beat English-humor piece that will keep you laughing and sleuthing all night long. Enjoy dinner, dessert and the 40-minute mystery at Republic Square (behind Wet N' Wild) on Republic Dr., Orlando. Call 363-1985.

Sea World's Wild Arctic is an adventure so extreme it takes guests where they've never been before, combining a thrilling motion-based flight over the frozen North and up-close, real-life encounters with the majestic creatures that live there. Rock formations, ice floes, surge pools and boulders recreate life in the frozen North. Sea World salutes its southern sister, Key West, in the new Key West at Sea World. The attraction showcases all the wild excitement, island beauty and funky, tropical charm of our southernmost city. The food, entertainment, street vendors and, of course, the marine animals set the theme here. For more information call 351-3600.

Splendid China

If you've always wanted to visit the Orient but haven't had the opportunity, you'll find Splendid China, the Orlando area's newest major attraction, to be a wonderful alternative. Splendid China has replicated more than 60 of China's best known scenic, historic and cultural sites in both full scale and miniature.

Located at the entrance is Suzhou Gardens, a re-creation of a typical Chinese "main street" from about 1300 A.D. The buildings are authentically detailed; the street is filled with Chinese art and landscaping. The colors, sounds and fragrances of ancient China are everywhere.

Splendid China's replication of the Great Wall is considered its main attraction. The original three-foot building blocks were replaced by one- and two-inch-long bricks, more than six million of which were laid by hand to create this incredible 2,600-foot-long version of the 4,200-mile-long original.

SEE the miniaturized re-creation of Beijing's Forbidden City and Imperial Palace, the largest and grandest royal palace ever built. Constructed in 1420 A.D., its 9,999 rooms were headquarters for several emperors, their families, various servants and military personnel. The complex is so vast that several emperors lived their entire lives without ever leaving its walls!

Artisans from China have replicated many of the country's scenic, historic and cultural sights in miniature at Splendid China.

You'll find Splendid China's live entertainment to be beautiful as well as powerful. SEE demonstrations of the martial arts, Chinese acrobats, dancers and other native performers.

Splendid China is located in Kissimmee on U.S. 192, three miles west of I-4 (exit 25-B) and only two miles from Walt Disney World. You should allow four to six hours for a leisurely walk-through of 5,000 years of Chinese history and culture.

Admission is $23.55 including tax for adults, $13.90 including tax for children 5 - 12 and free for children 4 and under. Group rates are also available. Parking is free. Call 396-7111 for more information.

The Magic Kingdom

Welcome to the land of the world's most famous mouse! Read on for information on the best way to SEE the Magic Kingdom.

MAKING THE MOST OF YOUR DAY

Arrive 45 minutes before opening time. We know it's hard to get up early when you're on vacation, but make the effort! It can make all the difference in avoiding crowds at Walt Disney World's theme parks.

Parking. The parking fee is $5. Make sure you write down the row name and number of your space on your ticket and take it with you.

The best days to visit, believe it or not, are weekend days (because many people are either leaving Orlando or just arriving).

Travel light. Wear loose, light clothing and the most comfortable shoes you've got. Changing shoes midway through your visit is another way to increase your comfort. Store excess items in the lockers as you get off the monorail. If you buy souvenirs, ask to have them sent to package pickup and get them at day's end.

The best time to go on rides may be when a parade is going on in the Magic Kingdom. Check the parade schedule and take advantage!

WHERE TO BEGIN

Your journey begins on Main Street U.S.A. Everyone's journey, in fact, begins here, and this is why you should head immediately to the opposite end of the park. This strategy only works if you arrive early in the day.

HELPFUL HINTS FOR EACH "LAND"

Adventureland. Take the Jungle Cruise in early morning or evening to avoid long lines.

Frontierland. If you want to SEE the Diamond Horseshoe Jamboree, make reservations early in the morning at the Hospitality House on Main Street U.S.A.

Big Thunder Mountain has some effects which are best appreciated at night. Try to go twice — early in the day and again just before the park closes.

Liberty Square. Liberty Square Riverboat and Mike Fink Keel Boats show you the same scenery. If you're short on time, choose the one that appeals to you most.

Fantasyland. Rides and attractions here are for the young at heart. In a new and gentler mood, Snow White appears in five scenes: the castle courtyard, scary forest, dwarf's cottage, receiving the Prince's kiss, and riding off to live"happily ever after."

Mickey's Starland. Originally called Mickey's Birthdayland to celebrate the great mouse's longevity, this attraction has been renamed and revamped. If you have small children, plan to budget a good chunk of time here.

New Tomorrowland. Important hint: don't eat a large meal before riding Space Mountain. ExtraTERRORestrial Alien Encounter, Tomorrowland's newest feature, is a bone-chilling and spine-tingling encounter with an extraterrestrial monster as hideous as the mind can conjure. Guests are literally surrounded by the terrifying action complete with elaborate special effects and show systems.

Disney-MGM Studios

Disney-MGM Studios is Walt Disney World Resort's newest theme park.

Making the most of your day. Disney-MGM Studios tends to be least crowded on Mondays and Tuesdays. It would be wise to begin your week here at Disney-MGM and continue on to Epcot and the Magic Kingdom later in the week (when they are less crowded).

Where to begin. Pick up a schedule of the day's entertainment as you enter the park. You may want to arrange your day around SEE-ing certain shows.

If you have arrived early, head straight to the Twilight Zone Tower of Terror, the Backstage Studio Tour or the Great Movie Ride.

Hint: if the line for the Great Movie Ride extends outside the Chinese Theatre, you're in for a wait. (It almost always does!)

Hint: it's nest not to sit on the left side of the Backstage Studio Tour vehicle if you don't want to get wet!

The park's newest attraction, Twilight Zone Tower of Terror, is a spine-tingling mystery drama where the "audience" probes the limits of human experience, climaxed by a 13-story drop into The Twilight Zone. The effect is mind boggling.

If you're interested in stardom, you might have a chance on the Backstage Studio Tour or at Superstar Television. Volunteer whenever possible! Hint: you're more likely to be picked for Superstar Television if you stand in the front of the waiting room.

Up-to-the-minute update. A tip board (on Hollywood Blvd. near the Theater of the Stars) gives up-to-the-minute information on showtimes and waiting times for attractions.

Epcot

To enjoy your visit the most, first familiarize yourself with EPCOT (SEE map on opposite page). The park is shaped like an hourglass, with World Showcase on top and Future World on the bottom (nearest the entrance).

Making the most of your day. Please SEE our helpful tips on arriving early, parking and the best days to visit in the MAGIC KINGDOM Park story in this magazine. They hold true for EPCOT as well.

Travel light. Wear loose, light clothing and the most comfortable shoes you've got. Store excess items in the lockers as you enter the park. If you buy souvenirs, ask to have them sent to package pickup and get them at day's end.

Make dining reservations immediately after entering the park if you'd like to try one of the World Showcase restaurants. Reservations can be made at Guest Relations or at kiosks throughout the park.

Spaceship Earth is sure to have a huge line almost immediately after the park opens. It is usually a good idea to visit this attraction late in the afternoon.

Where to begin. Since Future World is closest to the park entrance, it gets crowded early in the day. Most visitors, however, move to the right as they enter the park. We recommend Epcot's newest attraction, "Honey, I Shrink the Audience", on the left in the Imagination pavilion. Tour World Showcase as soon as it opens (at 11 a.m.) and return to Future World for the late afternoon or early evening (Future World closes nightly at 7 p.m.).

Universal Studios

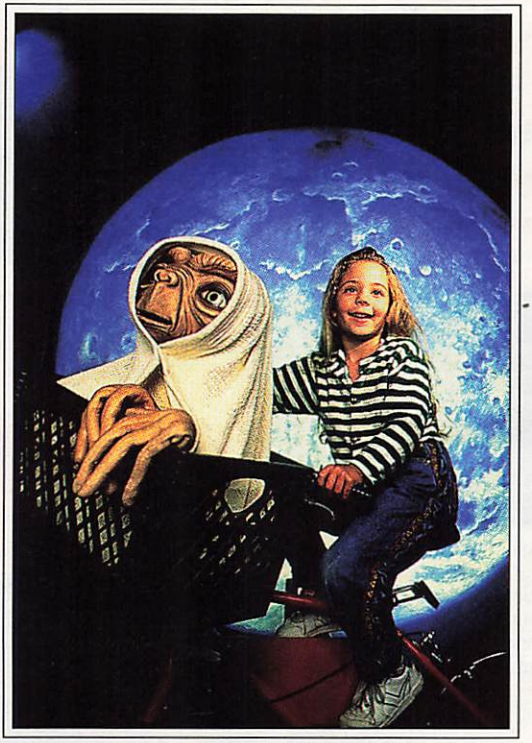
We've got some great hints to help you SEE the most of Orlando's largest movie-making theme park!

Be early. Arrive at the gates when they open at 9 a.m. You'll get a jump on the crowd (which usually appears around 10).

Making the most of the time you've got. Sources at Universal Studios say that it takes 12 - 14 hours to fully appreciate the park's six sound stages, numerous street scenes and dozens of themed eateries and boutiques. This means that you need to (A) buy a two-day pass or (B) decide what you don't want to miss and budget your time accordingly.

Step away from the crowd! Don't dawdle! Take a right on Hollywood Blvd. and head right for the E.T. Adventure (#20 on map, opposite) and a star-bound journey to save the green planet and bring E.T. home. Or, if the howling, growling fury of Kongfrontation "ape-peals" to you more, head right for #11 (this ride will get very busy later in the day). The Back to the Future Ride (#17), which some say is Orlando's best ride, is also a good place to start. Proceed in a circle around the park, hitting the major attractions.

If you've got time left over when you've seen the main attractions, then take time to explore the street sets, do some souvenir and gift shopping and catch up on the other things you've skipped but want to see.



E.T. continues to capture the hearts of visitors at Universal Studios.

Hours and admission prices. Adult admission is $39.22 including tax; admission for kids ages 3 - 9 is $31.80 including tax. Two-day passes are $58.30 for adults; $46.64 for children (both includle tax). The park opens at 9 a.m. Closing hours vary seasonally. For more, call 363-8000.

Silver Springs

You'll encounter 'gators, hawks, herons and more on the Lost River Voyage.

Imagine yourself traveling back to a time when Florida was covered in green and wild animals sunned themselves along the shores of crystal-clear waters. Silver Springs, a 350-acre nature park, is a place where you can experience Florida as it was.

At Silver Springs, you will journey through the exotic jungles of the Silver River where you'll encounter all kinds of wildlife. On the Jungle Cruise you'll SEE zebras, giraffes, ostriches and an "arkful" of other animals roaming the water's edge.

Don't miss Sobek! At 16 feet and nearly 2,000 pounds, he's believed to be the largest American crocodile in the care of man.

Silver Springs' famous Glass Bottom Boats allow you to SEE life under the river. Explore the untamed version of Florida on the Lost River Voyage where you'll encounter 'gators, hawks, herons and and giant gar fish.

You can also view exotic animals in a zebra-striped, four-wheel-drive Wrangler Jeep that will carry you through 35 acres of carefully-designed habitats.

Don't miss the animal shows including "Creature Feature" where you'll SEE giant spiders, scorpions and hissing cockroaches up close. "Amazing Pets" stars dogs and cats performing extraordinary feats. During "Reptiles of the World," you'll learn amazing facts about snakes, lizards and alligators.

Silver Springs is located at 5656 East Silver Springs Blvd. in Silver Springs, Florida (one mile east of Ocala, ten miles east of I-75). For more information, call (800) 274-7458.

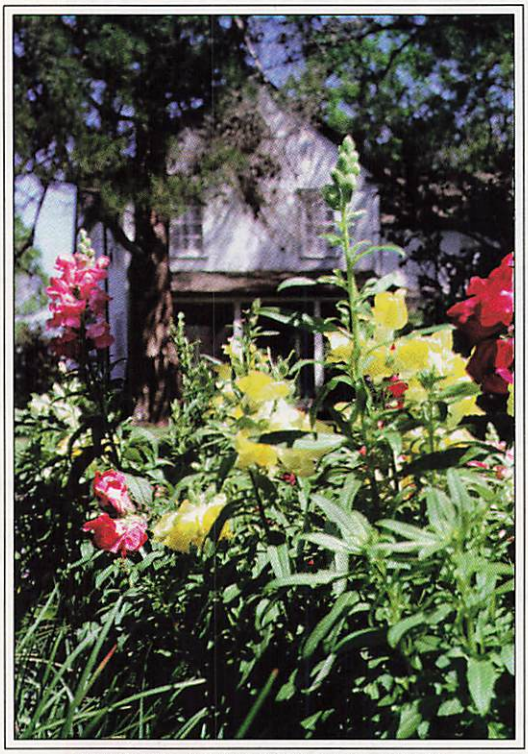
Botanical Beauties



Colorful blooms abound in front of Leu House.

Action and adventure are not the only features available in Orlando area attractions. Botanical beauty flourishes in several parks which offer breathtaking displays of lush plant life. Whether as a day trip or an afternoon stroll, these parks serve as relaxing getaways for both Floridians and visitors.

The Bok Tower Gardens is a serene sanctuary abounding with azaleas, camellias and magnolias. The seasonal variety of the garden's displays makes it a lovely place to visit any time of the year. The delightful sound of bell music accompanies your exploration of the gardens. The carillon, built of Georgia marble and St. Augustine coquina stones, is a National Historic Landmark. Every half hour, the Bok Singing Tower features music from one of the world's greatest carillons and a 45-minute recital takes place at 3 p.m. daily.

Cypress Gardens, the world's foremost tropical showplace, features premier botanical gardens and old-fashioned southern hospitality. The Spring Flower Festival runs from March though May. Unique flower displays of the springtime's most beautiful blooms are exhibited during this event. Year round over its 200-acre site surrounded by ancient cypress swamps, the park features more than 8,000 varieties of plants and flowers from 75 countries. The park's most recent botanical expansion is the Plantation Gardens which offer interactive gardening displays. The Vegetable and Fruit Garden, Herb and Scent Garden and Rose Garden are beautiful and instructional displays with something to offer each of their visitors.

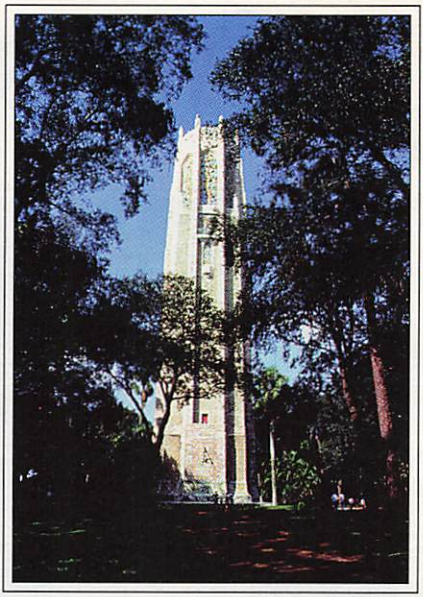
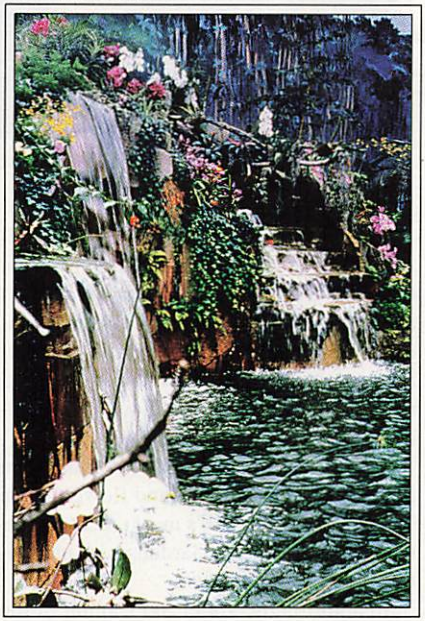
The Leu Botanical Gardens is the home of the largest camellia and formal rose gardens in the South. Year-round, the orchid conservatory is alive with blooms. A unique floral clock is also a favorite of visitors who come to stroll among the dogwoods. The Leu House is a restored example of a turn-of-the-century Florida farmhouse. Visitors can enjoy the peaceful beauty of nature while learning first-hand what life was like for the early settlers of Florida.

In A World of Orchids, thousands of rare and exotic examples of these exquisite blooms flourish in a state-of-the-art, air conditioned, tropical rain forest garden showcase. The tropical setting is enhanced by dozens of species of graceful palms, bamboo, temperate ferns, colorful bromeliads, ginger, heliconias, other flora and by an impressive 150 x 35-foot mural. In addition to this indoor paradise, there are six greenhouses of exotic orchids and a laboratory to observe the germination and early growth of the seedlings. Cooling waterfalls, Koi ponds, and the ever-present songs of frogs and exotic birds complete the relaxed atmosphere of this lush garden display.

Originally named La Florida, the flower, Florida is unsurpassed in its botanical magnificence. These gardens offer fascinating places for visitors to escape the roller coasters and enjoy the full extent of the natural beauty which flourishes in this area.



The Bok Tower houses the beautiful and delightful music of the carillon.



An exotic tropical rain forest setting is re-created at A World of Orchids.

Cypress Gardens

At Cypress Gardens, you'll be surrounded by 8,000 varieties of plants and flowers from 75 countries on its sprawling 200-acre site.

If you love bright, beautiful flowers, visit Cypress Gardens, the world's foremost tropical showplace. This family entertainment theme park is known for its premier botanical gardens, world-famous water-ski revues, and old-fashioned Southern hospitality.

Year round the park features more than 8,000 varieties of plants and flowers from 75 countries. The park's most recent expansion is the Plantation Gardens with interactive gardening displays.

In addition the Water Ski Capital of the World presents "Totally Mardi Gras!", a water spectacular, performed by the Greatest American Ski Team. World-record stunts and vibrant costumes delight audiences.

Cypress Gardens is located near Winter Haven, Florida, off U.S. 27, one hour from Orlando. The park is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The festivals (with the exception of the nighttime Garden of Lights event) are included in the regular price of admission, which is $29.63 (tax included) for adults, $24.33 (tax included) for seniors (55+), children ages 6-12 free with paid adult, 5 and under free. How Do I Get Back To My Hotel?

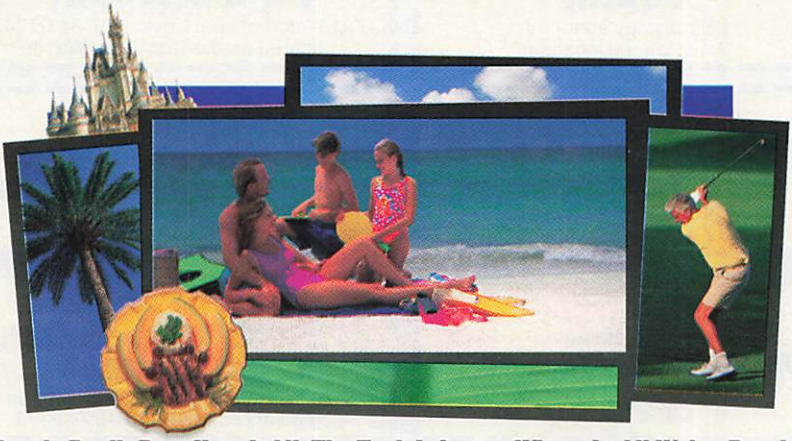
Courtesy The Walt Disney Co.

That is a good question! Here are simplified directions to get you back where you want to be.

Leaving Magic Kingdom & EPCOT Center
Look for the two I-4 signs: I-4 East to Orlando and I-4 West to Tampa. To Orlando, Exit 29 is Sandlake Road (Hwy. 482) and Exit 30A is International Dr. (Hwy. 536), both to Beeline 528 to the airport. Exit 30B is Kirkman Road (Hwy 435) and Exit 38 is Downtown Orlando.

Leaving MGM Studio, Pleasure Island and Typhoon Lagoon going back to Orlando
Look for signs reading 4 - 536 - 192. When you see these three, follow sign to the right to Tampa/Kissimmee. I-4 West takes you to Tampa destinations. Kissimmee Exit 25A is east of 192. Exit 25 B is west of 192.



Florida Really Does Have It All. The Trick Is Staying Where It's All Within Reach.

Just 90 minutes from Walt Disney World® Resort lie our turquoise waters and 28 miles of snow-white beaches. Florida Gators Florida alligators may look lazy and sluggish, but don't be fooled!

Lots of people come to Florida and expect to SEE 'gators in every lake, mudhole and puddle. While that may be an exaggeration, there are plenty of 'gators around. Read on for some interesting tales . . . from the green side?!

Is it a 'gator or a croc? Look at the snout — 'gators have broad, rounded snouts. Crocodiles have long, pointed snouts.

Asleep and sluggish or fierce man-killers? Contrary to their sluggish appearance, alligators are very quick-moving. They can reach speeds of almost 30 m.p.h. on land. At a short distance, they can outrun an average horse!

Fascinating fact. Alligators have seven times the muscle density of man, allowing them to jump 4 to 6 feet in the air.

The gator rule. Always remember this rule: NEVER FEED AN ALLIGATOR. It's against the law and it's dangerous.

If you'd like to learn more about Florida's most famous reptilian resident, read on for suggestions on where to SEE 'gators:

Gatorland, on Hwy. 441 (just off Hwy. 192 between Orlando and Kissimmee, 1-800-777-9044), features the famous 'Gator Jumparoo Show and 'Gator Wrestling. SEE their ad on page 36.

You'll also see exciting 'gator wrestling at Jungleland located at 4580 W. Hwy. 192 in Kissimmee, (396-1012) featuring the Bushmaster's Gator Wrestling Show. See ad on page 33.

If you'd like to SEE 'gators in their home-sweet-home (the wetlands), consider taking an airboat ride. For more information, SEE Boggy Creek Airboat Rides' ad on page 26 and Airboat Rentals U-drive's ad on page 41.

Sea World

Sea World, the world's largest marine life park, can be thoroughly enjoyed in eight to ten hours — but it takes some planning. We've put together some tips to allow you to be "Sea World smart" — before you go.

TIPS TO SEE-ing IT ALL

Pick up a map and schedule at the Information Center just to your left as you enter the park. Take a few minutes to plan your itinerary around the show schedules.

Sea World's shows are scheduled so that you can SEE them all in one day and visit exhibits in between. Shows include: a Whale and Dolphin show, Water Ski show, and "Shamu: World Focus" killer whale show (where a huge screen allows visitors to SEE these awesome mammals underneath the water). "Shamu: Close Up!", a new 1.7 million-gallon naturaliastic addition to Shamu Stadium, is the largest and most sophisticated marine mammal observation, breeding and research facility in the world. "Big Splash Bash, a dazzling, aquatically themed extravaganza, brings to life the lore and legend of the sea in a song-and-dance spectacular.

Arrive 15 or 20 minutes before showtime for good seats. Note! Early arrival is especially important at Sea Lion & Otter Stadium. There is a 20-minute pre-show performed by a Sea World mime who is hilarious!

Kids' fun can be found at Shamu's Happy Harbor, an amazing playland your kids won't want to leave. Make sure your children wear swimsuits for the water toys — and budget a good deal of time for this spot.

To avoid crowds, plan lunch before noon or after 2 p.m. There are fast-food restaurants or stands in each quadrant. You can enjoy a sit-down dinner at Bimini Bay Cafe (to your right on the lake upon entering the park). For a unique dining and entertainment experience, try the Polynesian Luau at 6:30 p.m. It's best to make reservations for the Luau a few days ahead by calling 1-407-363-2559.

Wheelchairs can be rented at the Information Center for $5 (electric are $25), dolphin-shaped strollers for $5.

Bring spare change for feeding the animals ($1 for three fish), operating remote control boat ($1). You'll also want extra money for refreshments.

Admission is $37.95 for adults; $31.80 for kids ages 3 - 9; children two and under are free. The cost of a two-day pass is just $5 more. Parking is $5.

Location: at the intersection of Interstate 4 and the Bee Line Expressway. For more information: call 1-407-351-3600, ext. 3414.

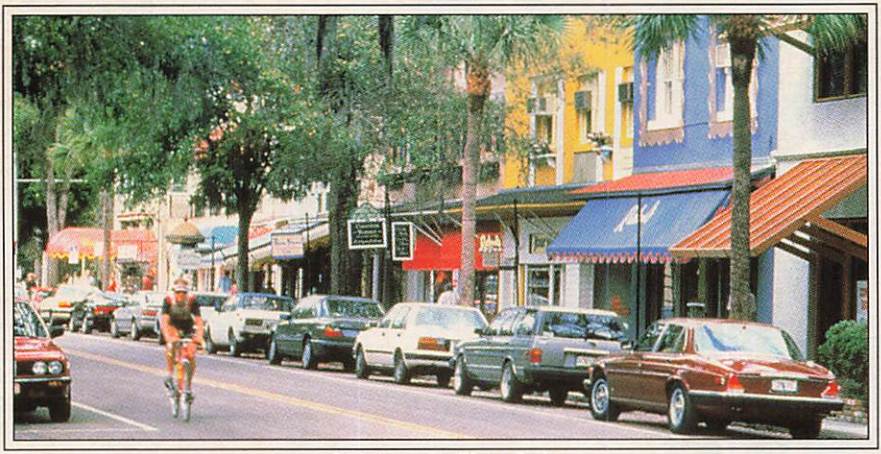
Park Avenue



Park Avenue in Winter Park

Bargain shoppers beware! You won't find any outlet stores on Park Avenue in Winter Park. What you will find is an adventure in upscale shopping.

Like the country's other famous Park Avenue (in New York, of course), this tree-lined main street is a mecca of unusual and distinctive shops, fine dining, and unique art musuems and galleries.

Here, you'll find shops such as Ann Taylor, Banana Republic, Crabtree & Evelyn, Jacobson's, Laura Ashley, Talbots, Victoria's Secret, and so many others it's impossible to name them all here.

A jewel-within-a jewel, Hidden Gardens arcade houses superb restaurants and charming boutiques, all tucked away in a tiny courtyard which opens onto Park Avenue.

Galleries and museums are also found aplenty. Of special interest is the Morse Museum of Art, just off Park Avenue on East Wellbourne, which contains a treasure trove of Tiffany glass as well as priceless paintings, prints, pottery, metalware, jewelry, and other art objects. For more information on the museum, call 644-3686.

South of Central Park on Holt Avenue, the Cornell Fine Arts Museum exhibits works by masters along side students from Rollins College, contemporary Florida art along with superb examples of internationally recognized artists such as Roy Lichtenstein, Claes Oldenburg and Jasper Johns. The museum's calendar also includes art films, concerts, lectures, gallery talks, and other programs which entertain and educate.

Driving to Winter Park. Take I-4 to the Fairbanks Avenue exit (45). Go east on Fairbanks about a mile and a half to Park Avenue. Turn left (north) on Park Avenue and follow signs to public parking just north of Central Park. For more information, call the Winter Park Chamber of Commerce at 644-8281 or stop by at 150 New York Avenue (parallel to Park Avenue) to pick up a brochure with a map and full listings for area shops, restaurants and attractions.

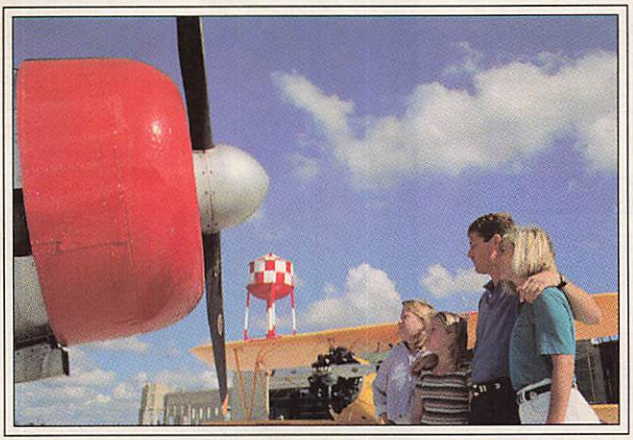
Fantasy of Flight



Vintage aircraft fascinate all ages at Fantasy of Flight in Polk City.

The year is 1943. Imagine yourself somewhere in the Pacific aboard an aircraft on a WWII combat mission. The Briefing Officer indicates there is considerable enemy activity in the air. Your plane begins to move forward and you feel the knot in your stomach begin to tighten and your palms begin to sweat. Is this reality? Almost.

In fact, it is the feeling that visitors can experience in the realistic flight simulators at Fantasy of Flight, a new aviation-themed attraction in Central Florida. Employing the most advanced simulator technology available to the public, Fantasy of Flight's simulators capture the sights, sounds, and even the emotions of participating in a WWII Pacific Theater combat mission.

Aviators begin their mission with a flight briefing that orients them to the aircraft they will fly and explains what to expect once they "take to the air." Basic flying techniques, fundamental air combat techniques, low level flying, takeoffs and landings are all covered during this initial flight briefing.

You then climb into the cockpit and head for the skies. In moments, you fly back in time more than a half-century to feel what it was like to actually be involved in a WWII battle. Pilots must maneuver their aircraft in relation to those of the simulated enemy. You must also be careful to avoid colliding with your own squadron mates.

Simulator pilots can experience a wide variety of different missions at Fantasy of Flight. Land-based flights or carrier operations, day or night and variable weather conditions are just some of the different scenarios that make each mission distinctly different.

Fantasy of Flight is located in Polk City, on I-4 (exit #21), halfway between Orlando and Tampa, just 20 minutes west of Walt Disney World. A visit takes approximately two to three hours. The attraction is open daily from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and longer during peak seasons. Each flight simulator combat mission experience requires a modest charge. Simulator flight passes can be purchased at the Fantasy of Flight main entrance complex.

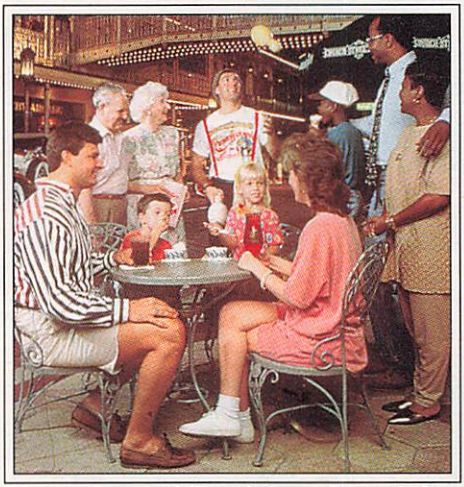
Church Street Station

Take a trip back to a time to Church Street Station — an adventure in entertainment with a potpourri of spectacular showplaces, each with the atmosphere of a by-gone era. Get a taste of 1890 right up to 1993 with great entertainment, food and shopping.



Dine out at one of Church Street Station's fine restaurants.

Rosie O'Grady's, the "first lady" of the station, is an authentic rip-roarin' saloon with antique brass chandeliers, etched mirrors and leaded glass. You'll be whisked back to the happy times of the gay 90's to the roaring 20's by strummin' banjos, Dixieland jazz, bar-top can-can girls, Charleston dancers and singing bartenders and waiters.

Four other showplaces offer visitors a selection of entertaining atmospheres. Apple Annie's Courtyard is highlighted by bluegrass and folk music; Phineas Phoggs Balloon Works features today's hottest top-40 hits in a decor honoring famous balloonists and their historic flights; the Cheyenne Saloon and Opera House spins country/western music Grand Old Opry style; and the Orchid Garden Ballroom offers live music from the 50's to the 90's in a Victorian-style ballroom. If you prefer your entertainment off the ground, Rosie O'Grady's Flying Circus can whisk you away on a balloon flight.

When you're ready to eat, you'll find that Church Street Station has a wide variety of choices. Fine restaurants such as Lilli Marlene's Aviator's Pub and Restaurant cater to the connoisseur of fine dining with aged beef and fresh seafood. If you prefer something a little less formal, other restaurants such as The Cheyenne Barbeque Restaurant and Crackers Oyster Bar serve favorites like buffalo burgers, red hots (hot dogs), fresh Florida seafood, barbeque chicken, beef and pork, pasta, salads and more. Also, specialty stores can set you up with whatever you need at the Church Street Station Exchange, the first large-scale retail center to open in downtown Orlando in almost half a century.

Make Church Street Station a stop on your vacation in Orlando for high times and great food! The Station is open from 11 a.m. - 1 a.m. and is located in downtown Orlando at I-4 and Church St.

The Mystery Is In The Sauce

Primarily it's the sauce which distinguishes continental cuisine from the more prosaic Anglo-Saxon style of cooking. Look for "a la" (also au, aux, or alla) and chances are you have found your sauce. Some classic ones:

alla poivre - natural meat juices, fresh ground pepper and brandy. Mainly with meat.

alla cacciatore - from sunny Italy, prepared with tomatoes, olive oil, and green peppers, simmered slowly. Delicious with chicken or anything else.

a la Florentine - suspect spinach somewhere, combined with a Mornay sauce (basically a cream sauce) served with poached eggs, poultry or seafood.

a la Provencale - a highly seasoned sauce prepared with garlic and tomatoes. Particularly delicious with shrimp.

a la Bourguignonne - a red wine sauce with brandy, mushrooms and small onioins. Superb with chicken or beef.

au gratin - normally a cheese sauce, particularly Parmesan, slightly browned in the oven to form a thin crust. Usually served over seafood or vegetables.

a la vinaigrette - the glamour vegetables such as artichokes and asparagus are served this way with oil, vinegar and chopped herbs.

a la Russe - prepared with caviar, mayonnaise, and a touch of mustard . . . but also a butter sauce with sliced lemons, chopped eggs and parsley.

au chasseur - a subtle recipe made with white wine, sauteed mushrooms and shallots. Even a broiled seagull would taste good with this.

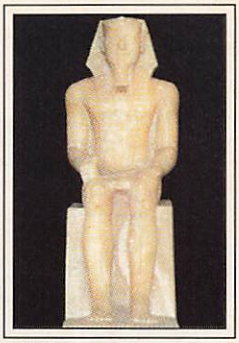
Splendors of Ancient Egypt

Visitors to Florida have a unique opportunity to visit the intriguing civilization of ancient Egypt with the world premiere of Splendors of Ancient Egypt. The exhibition is running January 10 to June 9, 1996 at the Florida International Museum in downtown St. Petersburg, approximately one-and-a-half hours from Orlando.

From the Egyptian Museum in Cairo, this exhibition features 12 architecturally enhanced galleries representing ancient Egypt over a 4,500-year period. Works of art depict the historical, religious and artistic aspects of Egypt's great pharaohs from the close of the Predynastic Period to the end of the Roman Empire. Included are unprecedented treasures never seen in North America. The treasures are from royal tombs uncovered in 1939 at Tanis, capital of Egypt during Dynasty XXI.



Alabaster statue of Pharaoh Khaefre

The Florida International Museum is located at 100 Second Street North in downtown St. Petersburg. From Orlando, take I-4 west to I-75 south to I-275 south to exit 10. Turn right on Second Street to 100 Second Street North. Call 1-800-777-9882 for ticket information and reservations.
